by WALTER M. BARRETT

With the advent of summer, comes our annual plague of professional beggars and panhandlers. It is unfortunate that there is apparently no way to curb the activities of these people who molest tourists and local residents. No doubt many of these beggars are worthy of help but too often they are professionals who have learned to live very well by preying on the sympathies of others. We do know they are a most embarrassing business barrier.

On every visit to Lake Tahoe we marvel at the rapid strides being taken to improve the region. New summer homes, new businesses and increased facilities of every nature are forever in the process of building. It can no longer be denied that at the Lake or in this region vacationists will find a welcome haven with their every want catered to by willing attendants.

When the sanitary board agreed recently to take up where the cleanup committee left off and continue to keep the town in presentable shape, we had every confidence that they would follow through. While our confidence is wavering slightly, we maintain hopes that they meant what they said.

Miss Ruth Moore, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Heelin Cardinal acted as best man.

Mrs. R. L. Augustus, parents of the bride, Miss Muriel James, Kenneth Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Taylor, all of Oakland, were some guests at the rites.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore are at home to their friends in the Bottcher apartments.

The Sacramento drum corps was awarded first place in a spirited contest.

FIRE EXTINGUISHED

The new fire pumper truck of the forest service at Tahoe Park public camp was called into use last week to extinguish a brush fire at Cedar Flat which burned over an area of about a quarter of an acre. Ranger Charles Arment assisted by the north end citizen who allowed the fire to get out of control succeeded in putting the fire out unaided.

Promotion Of Lake Area Is Urged At Meet

Resort Owners, Others Talk Of Mutual Problems At Lake Meeting

HARMONY IS URGED

More Than 100 Gather For Discussion of Plans

More than 100 members of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association met Tuesday at Globin's on the south end of Lake Tahoe where evidence was again submitted that will bear out the fact that the Lake district is of the way to become the most widely known resort area in the world.

Enthusiasm, plus a genial spirit of cooperation, predominated at the meeting. Resort owners renewed their confidence in the future possibilities of the region and discussed problems of mutual benefit and agreed to work in harmony on solutions.

Some idea of the benefits of the association were contained in the report of Secretary Henry F. Droste, who pointed out that a sum in the neighborhood of $13,500 would be available for a working fund this year. Three years ago, Droste said, the membership of the group stood at 84 and at Tuesday's meeting a roster of 287 was announced.

Cooperative advertising as a means of stimulating travel and vacations in the Tahoe area was stressed by George Kehlet of Meeks Bay, who urged the members utilize every means at their command to continue the splendid work of publicizing the region. He called attention to the many fine pictures and stories carried in metropolitan newspapers and reported on the erection of more than 40 bill boards throughout the state of Nevada and California directing tourists to this area. He left no doubt that the leaders in the organization are plugging hard and that the money spent is going into channels where the most good may be anticipated. Results are already apparent and information requests have gained 25 per cent.

Fred Tatton of the state chamber of commerce again pledged the support of that group in the program and President Harry Comstock, who presided, discussed progress being made by the association in securing aid from the state fish and game commission in restocking the lake and adjacent streams. J. W. Johnson supplemented the report by urging return of petitions directed to the state legislators asking aid in the fish restoration program.

Forest Supervisor Smith spoke briefly on the aims of his department and County Supervisor Jack McFadden of Placer county reiterated his promise to urge his board to continue support of the region.

Al Richardson told of his efforts in having the Echo Summit road repaired and said it would be completely resurfaced in a day or so.

A spirit of goodfellowship and harmony, qualities unknown prior to the organization of the association, prevailed throughout the instructive meeting and success, if the work is carried through as programmed, was strongly indicated.

The July meeting was called off and the next meeting will be held in August.

SATURDAY LAST DAY FOR FILING OF PAPERS

With the time for filing nomination papers expiring Saturday, June 22, three local candidates are in the field for the office of supervisor of the fifth district. Those who had filed up until yesterday were C. B. White, Ben Tonini and Alex Robertson, the incumbent. The supervisors in the first and second districts will also be elected. Judge George L. Jones is the only candidate filed for the position of superior judge. C. S. Abrogast will be opposed by Frank Davies in the race in the first district. Frank Rowe is expected to file for reelection in the second district.

WORLD'S MEANEST THIEF STEALS MONEY FROM WAR VICTIMS

Many stories have been written about the "world's meanest thief" but none have dealt with a meaner culprit than the one who nearly emptied the American Red Cross contribution jar in Loynd's Truckee Drug some time Monday evening and walked out with approximately $10 in small change.

The theft was not noticed until Tuesday morning when it was discovered the jar was virtually empty. It was believed that some low type person took advantage of a brief absence of clerks the evening before and filled pockets from the change in the small glass jar.

LEGION POST TO HAVE LADIES NIGHT JULY 2nd

An innovation is planned by Truckee Post No. 439, American Legion, for the July 2 meeting when officers will be installed for the coming year. Preceding the meeting, a ladies night dinner will be enjoyed at Johnny Moro's Italian restaurant, the members being hosts to their wives and ladies. Henry Loehr is scheduled to be installed as commander of the post at the meeting, replacing Walter M. Barrett.

TELEGRAM CLARIFIED IN REGARD TO ROAD

The recent telegram from Representative Englebright with the information that $150,000 had been secured for a forest service highway project in the Tahoe City-Brockway district, led to reports that the money was intended for the Truckee-Brockway cut-off. This report has been denied and it was authentically reported that the work will be done between Tahoe City and Brockway.

MORE FIRE PROTECTION IN TAHOE FOREST SEEN

Additional fire protection for this section of the Tahoe National forest was assured at the three day training school held at the old Forbes CCC camp near Forest Hill last week.

A patrolman at large and a five-man suppression crew, quartered at the Truckee ranger station, a patrolman on U. S. Highway 40 and a look out fireman on State Line Point near Brockway have been added to the regular crew of past years.

Twenty-five members and guests attended the meeting which was featured by interesting motion pictures presented by R. H. Strosnider of Lake Tahoe. The scenes were of interesting and historic spots throughout the southern states visited by Mr. and Mrs. Strosnider.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF PIPE FROM C. C. C.

TAHOE CITY, June 20—Sergeant George Spaulding of the California highway patrol Friday night arrested Jack Cooper and J. C. Crane of Reno for allegedly removing pipe lines from the Rubicon Park C. C. C. camp. Spaulding was notified of the theft by C. Calvert, camp superintendent. The men were arraigned before Justice of the Peace E. W. Bliss and taken to the Truckee jail over night by the traffic officer and Constable Harry Johanson.

Hearing in the case was held on Monday in the court of Justice Martin at the south end of the lake.

SPRINKLERS REPLACE FIRE TRAIN AT GAP

Modern machinery has once more proved an efficient substitute for man power in the case of protecting the Southern Pacific company's snow sheds from fire.

The railroad has recalled its regular fire train at Emigrant Gap because of the installation of a modern sprinkling system in its snowsheds near there. The fire train crew will now bid for other jobs. Stand-by trains are still at Colfax and Truckee, however, and the Norden fire train is still in service.

The Southern Pacific has kept a fire train for almost eight months of the year for scores of years near the Emigrant Gap snow sheds.

RULES FOR SWIMMING CALL FOR CAUTION

Disregard of a few simple rules in swimming often marks the summer with tragic death. The sport should be a safe and healthful one if the swimmer will follow a few simple precautions.

Don't dive until sure the water is deep and free of obstructions. Never swim far from shore. Don't swim when overheated.

Wait an hour or more after eating before going in the water.

Don't become panicky in an emergency and thus increase fatigue by struggling.

Never swim alone.

Don't overdo or swim too far; floating on the back will rest the swimmer.

Learn artificial respiration and life-saving.

NEW GARBAGE DUMP SET BY LOCAL BOARD

Andrea Armati, garbage collector, has started using the new trash burning area south of Truckee river near Truckee and the debris he collects is being burned currently.

Dumping of garbage and trash of any kind has been discontinued at the old Trout Creek dump and any attempted dumping there in the future will be in violation of the Truckee Sanitary District ordinance as well as the state public health laws.

"I trust it shall again be my good fortune to again be selected to represent the people of this great district in Sacramento."

FLY FISHING BETTER AS RIVER IS LOWER

With the drop of water which is clearing nicely, fly fishing is becoming more and more popular in this district. During the past week many nice catches have been made below and above Truckee on the river and in nearby streams. Lake Tahoe continues to yield a good harvest of mackinaws and large rainbow.

State Highway Truck Goes Over Grade At Tahoe

MORRISON IS KILLED

Faulty Steering Apparatus Is Blamed After Accident

Leonard Morrison, 23, for the past three years a resident of Truckee and Lake Tahoe, where he was widely and favorably known, was killed and four other men were injured on Tuesday afternoon when a state highway department truck got out of control and overturned on a grade a mile and a half south of Emerald Bay.

Morrison, fatally injured in the accident, expired a short time later in a Reno hospital where he was rushed for treatment.

Clarence Walters of Applegate is in a San Francisco hospital as a result of the mishap and Ed Parker suffered a broken nose. The driver of the truck, Glenn Sweeney of Truckee, and Fred Broyles, another member of the crew, escaped with lesser injuries.

Examination of the wrecked vehicle indicated that the steering apparatus had jammed as the truck was traveling down a sharp grade. The vehicle was traveling at a slow rate of speed, but because of the mechanical trouble, the operator was unable to turn it around the bend and the heavy truck plunged off the highway.

The accident occurred at 3:30 P. M. Morrison suffered a crushed chest and fatal internal injuries. He was conscious until after he reached the hospital but failed to respond to treatment.

The dead man's parents are residents of Crescent City. They were en route to San Francisco on a vacation trip when news of the tragedy was relayed to them. Arrangements for the rites are being made by them.

Celeste Planett, who last summer operated a liquor store at Tahoe City, announces that she has opened an up-to-date liquor store and will have a cocktail bar and serve meals at her new location in the former Freeman Inn at Kings Beach on July 1. The liquor store is now open. The resort will specialize in chicken and trout dinners. A large neon sign will designate the place.

Sorenson of Lake Tahoe. Tucker's father, George Tucker, also gave distinguished service with the Donner relief parties and both he and his father gave the late C. F. OUR FOREIGN CITIZENS

Counting noses among local representatives of the major European belligerents, it appears that California has her full quota.

Perhaps that is why, on Italy's declaration of war, the verbal tempest broke with such a blast in many foreign quarters here. Perhaps that is the reason for tenseness and watchfulness and open suspicion in some foreign areas of our cities.

In any case, the figures are worth studying. Here is the situation in California, as good a testing ground as any—

Of 107,249 Italian-born residents in this state are still aliens, have not applied for their first citizenship papers, and as far as international law is concerned, still owe their allegiance to Il Duce.

Of 81,840 California residents born in Germany, 11,662 are yet legal citizens of the Fatherland. There are 23,021 British subjects living in California and 5,736 French nationals.

If there is little absolutely neutral thinking among Americans watching the war abroad, certainly there is less among the foreign-born who have become American citizens. And by the same token, there is probably none at all among those who remain aliens.

The Italian consulates in this country were expected, of course, to issue laudatory statements on Mussolini's war declaration. A dictator's consuls are his official yes-men abroad. The remark of Acting Consul General Antonio Toscani-Millo at San Francisco that "Mussolini said it all and made me proud! He spoke for all Italians!" was about the only thing he could say—and keep his job.

His was a statement that all pro-totalitarian, anti-democratic Italians will echo aloud if they dare, and to themselves if they don't.

But it was not the kind of statement to be expected from an American citizen—even a naturalized. Questioned on his stand in possible war, F. A. Mostani, member of the Sons of Italy—and presumably a citizen, for he is a San Francisco bank employee—replied, according to the press—

"To ask Italians here to fight for the United States against Italy is he same as if my wife asked me to fight my mother."

The Italian Consular representative at Miami had the same problem to face. His code of honor dictated a different decision. Said he "We are American citizens! Our duty, our homes and our lives are here! We are not Americans by accident of birth, but because we selected America for our home."

The he resigned his post. For in a dictatorship there's no room on the staff for a man who doesn't click his heels and agree loudly with the Boss.

—Leone Baxter.

THE G.O.P. CLEARS THE DECKS

With a fanfare, flourish, and high hopes, Republican delegates from throughout the nation are descending on historic Philadelphia for their party's national convention, opening on June 24. Wendell Willkie, dark horse and white hope of many a grass roots Republican, confidently declares the national defense emergency has brightened his party's chances of victory in November, a conviction voiced by his fellow candidates for the nomination. A spectacular battle in the grand style is forecast at the nominating convention, for the two outstanding competitors for the honor of carrying the party's standard at the polls, may be running neck and neck. Still holding his early lead is Thomas E. Dewey, hard-pressed by Wendell L. Willkie, a new challenger who, within a few weeks, has risen from nowhere to second place in the favor of Republican voters. With these two contestants matched against each other, there'll be reason for Philadelphia's greeting bands to play, "There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight."

THE SCHNEIDERMAN DECISION

The decision of Federal Judge Roche of San Francisco in revoking the citizenship of William E. Schneiderman, Communist Party State secretary, goes far beyond the personal fate of Schneiderman and other alien Communists in its national significance. Throughout the nation, jurists have awaited the Schneiderman case ruling.

In effect, Judge Roche found, that the Communist Party advises, teaches and advocates the overthrow of the United States government by force and violence; that, therefore, any Communist obtains citizenship by breach of faith and fraud, and commits an illegal act, when he takes the necessary oath to support and defend the Constitution.

The decision means that the mask of Communism in America. It means that Communist groups and affiliates, from parlor pinks to deep maroon organizers, have been branded with the same iron of justice by the American courts—as enemies of the flag, the Constitution, and the American way of life. It means, too, confirmation of the abiding faith of patriotic citizens in the soundness of American justice and the integrity of our courts.

And it should be a matter of no small pride to Californians that the Schneiderman decision was handed down by a California jurist.

It seems to be a settled fact that our famous "debt limit" will be raised four billion dollars as the first step of Congress to get more war money. The present "possible" one billion dollars yearly increase for national defense taxes is likely to be "probable" in a few days and "certain" before the present month is over.

Republican Convention "Keynoter"

Governor Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota

Governor Stassen will act as temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention, which meets at Philadelphia on June 24. Just 33 years old, Governor Stassen is not only the youngest Governor of any state in the Union, but the youngest man ever to have been selected as Keynoter for a major party. He will have the duty of keynoting the issues upon which the Republican campaign for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency will be waged this year.

Politically Speaking

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, June 20—(U.P.)—Despite the interest in war news, politics were steaming up today with such highlights as the departure of the Republican delegation for Philadelphia, formation of "draft Hoover" clubs throughout the state, and trial balloons for the pushing of Gov. Culbert Olson for nomination as vice-president at Chicago.

And with the deadline for filing qualification papers for state offices on June 22, there was much scurrying around to get in under the wire.

There was considerable speculation on the voting intentions of the Republican delegates, in view of the late progress of Wendell Willkie and the Hoover sentiment. The delegation had no instructions and the members can vote singly but it is no secret that the group is dominated by the conservative "old guard" element which might favor the former president over the other candidates.

Up until the last few days, there was little open talk for Hoover but the latest draft movement was based on the argument that no other man in the country had the wealth of background, experience and capabilities for the presidency during wartime. It is a moot question if Hoover ever will overcome the negative sentiment that resulted in his 1932 debacle at the polls because many persons, rightly or wrongly, link his name with the depression.

The movement to place Olson's name in the vice-presidential grab bag is believed to have his tacit but not public approval. Several factors are in his favor for lining up a sizeable bloc of western votes. The California delegation will be host to the convention delegates from the other coast states at Treasure Island before the entire group leaves on a special train. Olson is said to be strong with

Know Your AMERICA

(Ed. Note: This is one of a series of short articles taken from data compiled for scenes of "America! Cavalcade of a Nation", theme spectacle of the 1940 California World's Fair.)

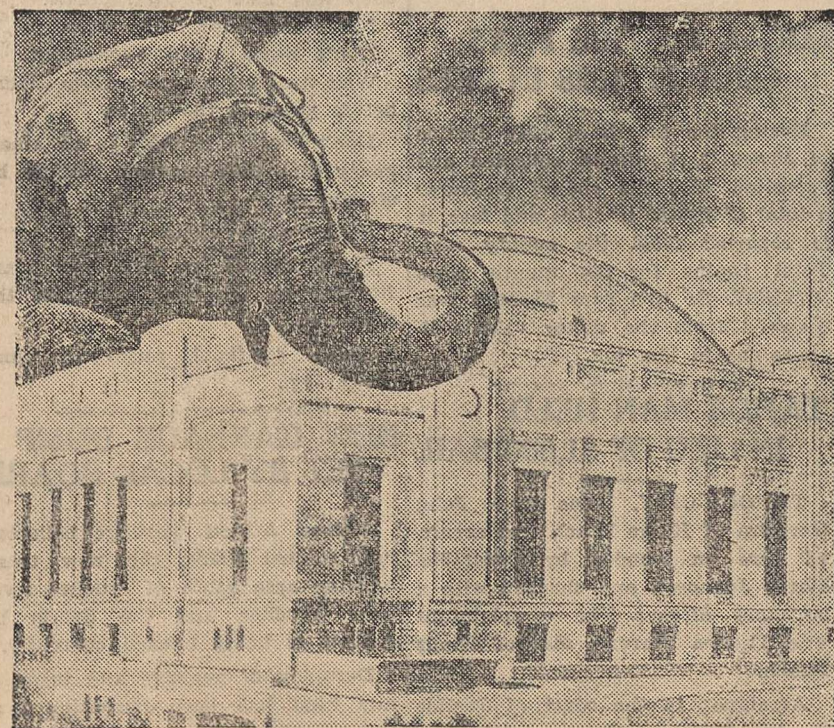

By the middle of the eighteenth century many thousands of American colonists—Germans, French Huguenots, Scotch-Irish and even the descendants of the original settlers—were thinking and speaking of officials and visitors from England as "strangers". These struggling, isolated colonies of the seventeenth century had become prosperous and self-reliant American colonies in only one hundred years. Stage lines and post office routes had connected the major settlements; the Indian menace was fast disappearing; inter-colonial trade was steadily increasing; families of northern colonies were intermarrying with southern colonists, and young colonials were being educated at Princeton in New Jersey.

Oregon Democrats after a speech in Portland last year.

He is a former Utah legislator and will pick up that delegation en route East. By the time the train gets to Chicago, Olson supporters would have a potential bloc of California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Arizona, Utah, Nebraska and up to half a dozen other states.

This might result in nothing more than a favorite son vote in early balloting and a quick end to whatever aspirations the California governor might have. But conventions have done queer things and a possible stalemate might swing sentiment to a western man, and Olson would be a possibility. Olson stands in well with President Roosevelt and has plugged the president at every turn.

Where Republicans Name 1940 Candidate

Site of the 1940 Republican national convention is Philadelphia's convention hall, which will accommodate 15,000 people. One thousand delegates will open their convention here June 24 to select the Republican candidate for president. Four out of five candidates nominated at past Philadelphia conventions were elected.

OUR WEEKLY SERMON

by GEORGE F. SANTA
(Moody Bible Institute of Chicago)

This is a day when intellectualism and logical reasoning are held in highest respect. Man boastfully asserts that he will accept only that to which reason gives assent. Whether or not he is able to make good his boast is another matter. And oftentimes, since he is given over to logic, and logic alone, insofar as that is possible, he comes to feel that Christianity, based on faith, is not for him. Many are the men who have lived and died under the impression—the very false impression—that Christianity is void of all that is rational and sound.

In the book of Isaiah we find a verse that should dispel any such feeling. "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow; though they be like crimson, they shall be as wool" (Isa. 1:18).

Glance at the verse for a minute. What do we find? First, a specific invitation. An invitation to accept the Christian precepts in blind faith? No, an invitation to reason together with God concerning a very important matter—your sin.

Now sin is a definite reality. No man, aware of conditions around him and honest about the secret desires of his heart, can deny it. God refers to it as such throughout the Bible. Even the verse under consideration makes that clear, for the reality of sin is assumed as undeniable. Not if they be scarlet, or if they be red, but "though your sins be as scarlet . . . though they be red like crimson." There is the indisputable basis for our reasoning. Sin is real.

But not only is sin real, sin is of great enough consequence to engage the attention and concern of God himself. An so deep is God's concern in the matter that He calls the sinner to Himself to talk with him concerning his sin. Have you talked with God about your sin, that very real sin which you know must eventually be dealt with either in love and mercy, or in judgment.

And why would God reason with us about our sin? Because He knows it must be judged and the sinner must suffer the consequences of his sin unless he will accept the way of escape God Himself has provided in the person of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. That is the blessed hope our text offers us. Read it again. Though your sins be as scarlet, though they be red like crimson . . . they shall be as white as snow, they shall be as wool.

There is the promise that sin can be washed away and hearts can be made clean. How? In the blood of the Lamb of God. Come now, you who are convinced of your sin, believe that Christ is able to free you from it—come now to "the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world."

God challenges you to accept His gracious invitation to come and reason with Him concerning your sin.

WEEK END REFUGIO

THIS is the way sportsmen in Chile spend their weekends between July and September. Our summertime is snowtime in Chile. Here, a three thousand mile chain of mountains three and four miles high presents ski runs which are unexcelled anywhere in the world. Strangely, though, in spite of the remarkable skiing possibilities offered in Chile, it was not until 1932 that the first ski school was opened.

During the ensuing period, however, the Chileans have made up for lost time—and now are most enthusiastic skiers. Comfortable, well equipped clubhouses called refugios have been opened up in leading ski centers, and in some of them private huts have been built by local sportsmen until a veritable ski town has sprung up. New automobile roads connect the ski centers with important cities and rail terminals; and ski tows have been introduced on many fields. Here, as skiers race down sky-towering mountains, some of the most majestic scenery on the globe unfolds before them—gem-like lakes, dark forests, and flowers that lend splashes of color even to winter scenes.

This summer, ski addicts from all over the country will be sailing southward in the Santa Elena to try out these southern fields. Directing the tour is "Wendy" Hilty who organized the first ski school in Chile and has played a heavy role in the development of the sport there. Mr. Hilty was an instructor in the famous Engelberg Ski School in Switzerland and each winter supervises ski instruction in the Plymouth, New Hampshire, area.

Better Light
HELPS KEEP EYES RIGHT!

PEOPLE say modern lighting that is "easy on the eyes" makes the eyes feel better... And they are right... Good lighting brings out the beauty of the home furnishings... It aids personal beauty, too.

Light that is glaring brightness or that is dim and gloomy makes hard work of seeing. It causes squints and frowns and scowls and brings on many premature wrinkles and face-lines.

Good, modern lighting merely means the right kind of light, and the right amount of light where you read or sew or use your eyes. And you can have it easily, quickly, inexpensively.

Taft Seen As Probable Nominee by New Yorker

"The man likeliest to win the Republican nomination is Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio. . . ."
 That's the prediction of Jack Doyle, nationally-known New York betting commissioner, an old hand at political betting.
 He has been laying odds on Presidential elections since 1896, and only in 1916, when Wilson nosed out Hughes by a hairline margin, did he ever miss.
 The 1940 G. O. P. convention will convene on June 24 in Philadelphia.

GOOD SKIING REPORTED AT MOUNT LINCOLN

NEVADA CITY, June 20—A few died-in-the-wool skiers are still finding good going on the top of Mount Lincoln, about two miles south of Donner Summit on Highway No. 40, according to John R. Hodgen, Tahoe National Forest Ranger at Cisco.
 Hodgen states that it is necessary for the skiers to walk from Vanderford's Resort but a few of the more enthusiastic skiers are still doing this on week-ends.

With employment rocketing at the Mare Island Navy Yard the city of Vallejo recently reported a housing shortage. Estimates are that 9,000 men will be employed at the navy yard by August 1.

COUNTY FARM LOANS

The opportunity to reduce the annual principal payments on Land Bank Commissioner loans by reamortizing them over a longer period of years has been opened to many of the 71 Nevada county farmers who have commissioner loans, according to a statement received today from the Farm Credit administration at Berkeley.

There were about $80,100 of Land Bank commissioner loans in this county at the beginning of 1940 and in addition $185,100 of Federal land bank loans. Many of these loans have already been reamortized.

Most of the Federal land bank loans are already written for long term up to 30-odd years, but the "Commissioners' loans were originally made on a 10-year basis with a heavier principal payments.

One county in California is 15 times larger than the state of Rhode Island—San Bernardino county.

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., a Lesson-Sermon will be read Sunday, June 23, on the subject "Is the Universe, including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force."

The Golden Text will be: "Lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, The God of hosts, is his name" (Amos 4:13.)

BANK OF AMERICA MAKES NATIONAL GUARD CAMP
 ATTRACTIVE TO EMPLOYEES

Attendance at National Guard encampments by guardsmen who are employees of Bank of America is to be made especially attractive this summer.

According to announcement today by L. M. Giannini, president of the bank, staff members enrolled in the National Guard will be given two extra weeks of vacation with pay, in addition to the regular two weeks which all permanent employees are granted. Thus they will suffer no loss of income throughout the entire summer training period of four weeks.

"This opportunity to cooperate tangibly in the defense program of the country," Giannini declared, "is welcomed by the Bank of America."

ENGLEBRIGHT FILES FOR RE-ELECTION

Representative Harry L. Englebright this week filed papers of candidacy with Secretary of State Paul Peek for re-election. He thus became the first candidate for state office to file.

Englebright, a resident of Nevada City, is a Republican by registration but has consistently carried the Republican, Democratic and Progressive nominations. He is an assistant to minority floor leader Joseph Martin and a consistent representative of the interests of his district.

TAHOE REGION HIGHWAYS ARE REPORTED TO BE OPEN
 BY NATIONAL AUTO CLUB

The Mount Rose Highway from Reno to Lake Tahoe is open, according to the Sacramento office of the National Automobile Club. The road is reported in good condition throughout. The Mount Rose Highway diverts from U. S. 395 about 9½ miles south of Reno and reaches the shores of Lake Tahoe at Incline, about 6 miles east of the California-Nevada State Line.

Motorist driving to Glen Alpine, El Dorado county, will find the road materially improved this year, reports the club. Last fall the Forest Service realigned and graded their road from Fallen Leaf Lake to Lily Lake and completed a high steel girder bridge across the stream below Lily Lake, with the result that there is now a good two-way road to Glen Alpine.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO ENGAGE IN THE SALE OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

June 12, 1940

To Whom It May Concern:
 Notice is hereby given that fifteen days after the date posted, the undersigned proposes to sell alcoholic beverages on these premises, described as follows:

Ward Creek, 3½ miles South of Tahoe City, Placer County.

Pursuant to such intention, the undersigned is applying to the State

If he asks for it (which he probably won't!), Herbert Hoover, our spy adviser, can have virtually the united support of California's big delegation to the G. O. P. National Convention, which opens at Philadelphia on June 24. But if Mr. Hoover's name isn't placed in nomination, the California delegation is expected to cast its first ballots for either Taft or Dewey, perhaps splitting its vote between them.

Tidbits: Our roving reporter tips us that Lieutenant Governor Ellis Patterson's boyhood nickname in Yuba City, his old home town, was "Mush" Patterson. And Assemblyman Jack Tenney of Los Angeles, famous as the author of "Mexicali Rose", answers to the fitting cognomen of "Ten-Ton" Tenney.

Governor Olson's recent appointment of Richard E. Mittelstaedt to his old post as Adjutant General in command of the California National Guard is of much more than passing significance. General Mittelstaedt helped to train and organize the A. E. F.'s heavy artillery in France during World War No. 1 and is recognized as one of the ablest military men on the West Coast. A soldier from boot up, he has been called back to service to build the California National Guard into an A-1 fighting unit, ready to defend California's coastline at an hour's notice.

Board of Equalization for issuance of an alcoholic beverage license (or licenses) for these premises as follows:
 On Sale Beer and Wine
 On Sale Distilled Spirits

Anyone desiring to protest the issuance of such license(s) may file a verified protest with the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California, stating grounds for denial as provided by law. The premises are not now licensed for the sale of alcoholic beverages.
